

VSL Complaints and Appeal Policy and Procedure

Purpose

The Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure is designed to ensure that Signature Training College (STC) responds effectively and efficiently to students' complaints and dissatisfaction during the course of study.

Complaints may arise from a student, a prospective student, an employer, a workplace supervisor, or others, in relation to the training services provided, including the conduct of training staff. A complaint may also be raised in relation to the conduct of an enrolled student. At times a student may seek to make a complaint or appeal a decision made in relation to academic matters involving their training experiences, such as assessment results or skills recognition. A student may also seek to make a complaint or appeal a decision made in relation to non-academic matters, such as fee payment related issues, staff members' or fellow students' behaviour.

This policy outlines a mechanism to ensure students and prospective students can have their dissatisfaction regarding any academic or non-academic matters addressed appropriately in a timely, fair and confidential manner.

Where possible all non-formal attempts shall be made to resolve the grievance. This may include advice, discussions, and general mediation in relation to the issue and the student's grievance. Any staff can be involved in this informal process to resolve issues, if the complainant is satisfied with the outcome of the discussion, it would mean that the matter is resolved. Records of the outcome shall be maintained by the Administration Manager.

If the grievance could not be resolved informally and once a student has placed a formal complaint or appeal the following procedures must be followed.
